2. place
3. time
They are happily, sadly, angrily, friendly, and politely. ~~Exc~~

Adverb of a place: They are above, around, backward, forward, here, there.

Adverb of time: They are hourly, daily, weekly, yearly, monthly, tomorrow, today, next week, just, soon
Tanishq studies for four hours every day

Preposition: A word that tells an object's position in the sentence. We can quickly identify them " where."
There are common prepositions: around, on, outside, near, by, before, in, with, across, beside, and above.

Sunitha is lying on the bed.

Conjunction: These are words that join two sentences.
They are: and, or, yet, but, or, neither.

~~Taja~~ likes to be simple
Here conjunction helps us to join both sentences.

2) Write a paragraph about your understanding of parts of speech from this section and identify them in the sentence.

Ans) I have understood parts of the speech from this section. They play a vital role in this section.
These are the small words that help us to form a sentence and are divided into eight arts they are:

1. Noun
2. Pronoun
3. Verb
4. Adjective
5. Adverb
6. Preposition
7. Conjunction
8. Interjection
- 9.

Noun: It is the word and is used to specify the name of a person, a place, an object, or an animal
Ex: Rishi Sunak is the PRIME MINISTER OF Britain
Here Rishi Sunak is Noun
Britain is noun
There is a pen
Pen is also a noun

Pronoun: It is used in place of a noun to eliminate the repetition of the name in the sentence.
For Example, Rita is going to school. Rita meets her friends at school
Here, we do not have to repeat Rita every time because the same listening word will get boring, and it doesn't look nice.
Hence, we use pronouns, and the pronoun can replace Rita
Example: Rita is going to school, and she meets her friends at her school.
Here she is a pronoun
he, she, and it is pronouns.

Adjective: It is a word that describes a noun. It can be a name, a place, an animal, or a thing
Ex: He has a beautiful house
Here beautiful is describing a house
Beautiful is an adjective, and the house is a noun
Bluebird: Blue is an adjective, and the bird is a noun

Verb: It is an act of doing word. It includes the action LIKE Singing, Washing, smiling, crying... etc

Mentor's note on the submission form in LMS (Learning Management System)

Dear student,

Except for a few corrections, rest is fine. You have to pay attention to capitalisation and consistency. The conceptual understanding is good. Keep it up. Your corrected file is shared to your email with feedback and explanations. Go through it so you can work on these for next submission.
